DESTINATION RETAIL & OFFICE TENANTS

Street-level retail space at 125 Lincoln is a key contributor to Santa Fe's famous gallery and restaurant scene. The foot traffic associated with this retail creates energy and vibrancy on the ground level that can be felt throughout the building's office spaces as well. Operable windows and covered patios further enhance the unique and historic charm of this truly exceptional Property, allowing office users to enjoy brisk mountain breezes and sun splashed vistas. Common areas throughout each building feature local art and photography, all of which has been recently updated.

TRADE AREA ANALYSIS

Santa Fe | The City Different and the State Capital

The oldest capital city in the United States and the oldest city in New Mexico, Santa Fe is well-known as a center for arts that reflects the multicultural character of the city. Tourism is a major element of the Santa Fe economy, with visitors attracted year-round by the climate and related outdoor activities (such as skiing in years of adequate snowfall; hiking in other seasons) plus cultural activities of the city and the region. Most tourist activity takes place in the historic downtown, especially on and around the Plaza, a one-block square adjacent to the Palace of the Governors, the original seat of New Mexico's territorial government since the time of Spanish colonization. Other areas include Canyon Road and "Museum Hill", the site of the major art museums of the city as well as the Santa Fe International Folk Art Market, which takes place each year during the second full weekend of July.

Santa Fe by the Numbers (ESRI 2021 Demographics)

FOUNDED IN 1608, SANTA FE IS THE OLDEST STATE CAPITAL IN THE UNITED STATES

SANTA FE ART REPORT CARD

A half-mile stretch of Santa Fe's Canyon Road has more than 100 galleries, boutiques and restaurants "making it the world's densest concentration of art galleries," according to the Four Seasons website

Santa Fe is the third-largest art market in the United States, after New York and Los Angeles.
